I. What was the context for this statement Jesus made?

A. Jesus and His disciples were in Jerusalem celebrating the Jewish Passover meal when Jesus told them He was going away.

B. Peter reacted to the news of Jesus departure and asked, “Lord, where are You going?”

C. Jesus told Peter, “A rooster will not crow until you deny Me three times.”

D. Jesus told the disciples they know where He is going.

E. The question burning in the disciples minds was where was Jesus going and how do they get there?

II. What does this statement “I am the way” tell us about Jesus?

A. Jesus is the only way to God the Father.

B. Why can Jesus say He is the only way to the Father?

C. Christians believe that Only Jesus is the Way to God.

III. What does this statement “I am the way” tell us about ourselves?

A. Because Jesus is the Way to God the Father, our relationship to Him is the single most important thing in our life.

B. For us to know and experience all that God has for us we have to, in the words of the Hawaiian Pidgin translation, be tight wit Jesus.

C. “The One Thing”
